China's Environmental Record

Dear Mr. Wolfson:

Thank you for your letter of January 29, 2009.

The attached information:

is a copy of the report titled "China's Environmental Record: A Review of Progress and Challenges" published by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) in January 2009. The report provides a comprehensive overview of China's environmental performance, including air quality, water resources, and environmental policy. It also discusses the challenges China faces in improving its environmental record and the role of the U.S. in supporting these efforts.

The report is available in both English and Chinese. It is a valuable resource for anyone interested in China's environmental progress and the challenges it faces.
