(a) Definitions. As used in this provision--

"Lobbying contact" has the meaning provided at 2 U.S.C. 1602(8).

(ii) SELLER has not, within a three-year period preceding this offer, had one or more contracts terminated for default by any Federal agency.

(D) Have not, within a three-year period preceding this offer, been notified of any delinquent Federal taxes in an amount that exceeds the threshold at 9.104-5(a)(2) for which the liability remains unsatisfied.

(1) Federal taxes are considered delinquent if both of the following criteria apply:

(i) The tax liability is finally determined. The liability is finally determined if it has been assessed. A liability is not finally determined if there is a pending administrative or judicial challenge. In the case of a judicial challenge to the liability, the liability is not finally determined until all judicial appeal rights have been exhausted.

(ii) The taxpayer is delinquent in making payment. A taxpayer is delinquent if the taxpayer has failed to pay the tax liability when full payment was due and required. A taxpayer is not delinquent in cases where enforced collection action is precluded.

(2) Examples. (i) The taxpayer has received a statutory notice of deficiency, under I.R.C. Sec. 6212, which entitles the taxpayer to seek Tax Court review of a proposed tax deficiency. This is not a delinquent tax because it is not a final tax liability. Should the taxpayer seek Tax Court review, this will not be a final tax liability until the taxpayer has exercised all judicial appeal rights.

(ii) The IRS has filed a notice of Federal tax lien with respect to an assessed tax liability, and the taxpayer has been issued a notice under I.R.C. Sec. 6320 entitling the taxpayer to request a hearing with the IRS Office of Appeals contesting the lien filing, and to further appeal to the Tax Court if the IRS determines to sustain the lien filing. In the course of the hearing, the taxpayer is entitled to contest the underlying tax liability because the taxpayer has had no prior opportunity to contest the liability. This is not a delinquent tax because it is not a final tax liability. Should the taxpayer seek tax court review, this will not be a final tax liability until the taxpayer, 2(e)-2.3(x)8.6(e)-2.3(r)c)1.3(tse-2.6(d)1.8(e)9.3(tallj)-132(u)3

(c) The certification in paragraph (a) of this provision is a material representation of fact upon which reliance was placed when making award. If it is later determined that SELLER knowingly rendered an erroneous certification, in addition to other remedies available, LOCKHEED MARTIN may terminate this contract for default.

3. FAR 52.222-22 Previous Contracts and Compliance Reports

(a) SELLER represents that if SELLER has participated in a previous contract or subcontract subject to the Equal Opportunity clause (FAR 52.222-26): (1) SELLER has filed all required compliance reports and (2) that representations indicating submission of required compliance reports, signed by proposed subcontractors, will be obtained before subcontract awards.

(b) Paragraph (a) applies only to the extent (1) SELLER performs work in the United States, or (2) recruits employees in the United States to Work on this Contract.
